

FARMERS MARKET FOOD TRUCK INQUIRY FORM

Bloomington Farmers Market

Thank you for your interest in food vending at our Saturday morning Farmers Markets (June 8 – October 12, 2024)

OVERVIEW/POLICY, INSTRUCTIONS, AND APPLICATION

The City of Bloomington Farmers Market’s primary purpose is to provide a space for its farmers/vendors to sell and promote their produce and products in a lively, vibrant marketplace. The Market welcomes local food trucks to enhance this atmosphere. Please read the following overview and instructions and submit signed form along with completed event application (Page 2).

Farmers Market Food Truck Overview

If chosen, you would be one of multiple food trucks food vending at Markets. On Saturday’s we typically feature two food trucks, though that is subject to change at the Market's discretion.

Farmers Market staff reserves the right to set the food truck rotation schedule, and makes the final determinations for all food vending. All dates will be scheduled in advance and confirmed with vendors. Applications will be considered on an on-going basis until all slots are filled. Food vendors are responsible for any applicable Market and Licensing fees. Vendors must be able to provide their own generators, and must give a minimum of 24 hours notice of inability to show for an event. No call-no shows are subject to losing future vending opportunities.

WEATHER -All events will be held outdoors rain or shine. Cancellation/Postponement of the Market may be done by Market staff in following city emergency preparedness guidelines.

All food trucks will need to pass community inspection by the City of Bloomington Environmental Health Dept and obtain required licenses through the City.

I have read and understand the above rules and considerations.
